

SATURDAY, MARCH 2

9:00 AM-11:30 AM

Greenwich Presbyterian Church
15305 Vint Hill Road, Nokesville, Virginia 20181

NEW INSIGHTS IN HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS

Learn more about human trafficking and how it has infiltrated your community. If you are a parent, grandparent, or teen, you need the skills to help eradicate this menace.
Your efforts can save a life!

Program Highlights

Two detectives working human trafficking cases in Prince William County, define human trafficking, highlight current local cases, and explain how you can help.

Chelsey Trevino, NOVA-HTI Intervention Coordinator, highlights NOVA-HTI's work and describes NOVA-HTI policy in terms of advocacy and grassroots efforts to change difficult Virginia laws.

Barbara Jean Wilson, a survivor of child sex trafficking, is an author and dynamic public speaker. After she escaped sexual exploitation and abuse, she earned her degree at Strayer University, and now works full-time at Freddie Mac.

In 2010, Barbara completed her autobiography, Mute But Now I Speak, which details her journey to freedom. She continues to rely on the truth that she can do anything through Christ who strengthens her.

Hosted by Greenwich Presbyterian Church in partnership with Northern Virginia Human Trafficking Initiative

Free Registration – Free childcare – Continental breakfast

Advance Registration required for childcare; click on the link below to register:

<https://form.jotform.com/90104676619157>

Questions? Contact Carol Clegg at cc2967448@gmail.com

Note: Teens should be accompanied by an adult.

FAITH. JUSTICE. FREEDOM
NOVA-HTI