

O Lord, you who prayed that we might be one as you and the Father are one, grant us the grace this day, we pray, to extend the right hand of fellowship to fellow saints across political lines, so that a watching world may see that your Spirit's power is far greater than all the fracturing powers that would keep us separated and suspicious of one another. We pray this in the name of Jesus, the one who reconciles all things.

Amen.